

PEACOCK VINEYARD
2009 Pinot Noir Russian River

THE VINEYARD: The Nuptial block is owned and farmed by the Martinelli Family and is located just off West Side Road near the Russian River. The block was honored with this name because of the generations of family members married under the ancient oaks. The soils are eroded riverbed, and are very well drained. The vineyard was planted to 2000 to 6 different clone selections.

THE WINE:

100% Pinot Noir, clones 828, 777, 667 and Pomard
Native fermentation, native mL
PH: 3.55
TA: 6.7g/L
Alcohol: 14.3%
Unfiltered
14 months in 30% new French oak and the balance in used French oak
200 Cases Produced

The goal in producing this wine was to produce a Pinot Noir in the more classic style. The wine is medium in weight, and aromas are focused on spice and tea leaves with hints of bright fruit. The pallet is crisp and balanced, well framed by the new French Oak.

OUR TEAM:

OWNERS: Chris, Betsy and Rebecca Peacock
WINEMAKER: Craig Becker
VINEYARD MANAGER: Martinelli Vineyard Management
VINEYARD CONSULTANT: Craig Becker

OUR STORY: Peacock was previously a single vineyard wine produced by Barnet Vineyards. In 1999, Chris Peacock hired Craig Becker, then winemaker at Spring Mountain Vineyard, to develop and make the Peacock wine. Craig Becker manages and coordinates the vineyard, winemaking and sales. The goal is to produce the finest single vineyard wine, with rich fruit and smooth elegant tannins that express the unique location of the Peacock Family Vineyard.
